Specially-Built Fisher Body — Strikingly Beautiful Duco Colors—Elegantly Appointed —The Aristocrat of All Chevrolets

Again Chevrolet revolutionizes every previous conception of quality and elegance in a low-priced automobile by presenting the Imperial Landau—a new model whose distinction and smartness entitle it to comparison with the costliest custom-built cars.

Its specially-built Fisher body reveals all the masterly craftsmanship for which the Fisher name is famous. The finish is lustrous black Duco, with embellishments of brilliant chasseur red.

With oblong windows—with nickeled windshield rim and landau bows—with vaulted roof, and with top and rear quarter in mouse gray textile leather, this aristocrat of all Chevrolets is one of the most strikingly beautiful cars to be seen on the streets and highways.

And, of course, it has all the power, speed and smoothness—all the flashing acceleration, finger-tip steering and unfailing dependability that have brought to Chevrolet such world-wide fame.

This beautiful car is now on display in our showroom. Come and see it. You will be delighted to learn that a car so low in price provides such commanding individuality and style!

Why Firestone GUM-DIPPED TIRES Wear Longer

WE recently were given the tremendous advantage of having the mammoth Firestone factories brought to us. In Tire Educational Meetings we were shown, by means of motion pictures, charts, tire samples and complete engineering data, the details of Firestone tire design and construction—and how Firestone and Oldfield tires and tubes are made in the world's most efficient and economical rubber factories.

• Firestone pioneered the original low-pressure tire and made it practical by Gum-Dipping. The motion pictures showed us how the cords of the carcass are dipped in a rubber solution, thoroughly saturating and insulating every fiber of every cord with rubber. Simple demonstrations and tests illustrated the great advantage of this process, which supplies the extra strength to withstand the extra flexing strains of low-pressure construction—one of the reasons why Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires are establishing such unheard-of mileage records.

We learned why the Firestone Balloon Tread gives extra safety, comfort and long wear. We were shown why Firestone, from the very beginning, designed and continue to use the round Balloon Tread, minimizing "shoulder breaks", so destructive to tires. Excess rubber at the edges of a Balloon Tread is wasted—actually detrimental to tire mileage. In the Firestone Tread the small units and sharp projections are scientifically placed to permit easy flexing, resulting in extraordinary riding comfort.

Come in and let us put a set of these Gum-Dipped Tires on your car—you can forget about tire trouble. Quality is higher than ever before—prices are lowest in history. Buy now!

PAUL UNDAUNTED BY PERSECUTION

GOLDEN TEXT—Acts 5:17-42.

DEVOTIONAL READING—We ought to obey God rather than men—Acts 5:29.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Peter Shows His Love.

JUNIOR TOPIC — Peter Speaks for His Lord.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul Firm Under Persecution.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Source of Courage.

Condemnation of the house of God through hypocritical act of Ananias and Sapphira had a salutary effect upon the people. The hypocrites were those joining the church, but not all men and women were all fully converted to it, even identified themselves with it. So great a revival in Jerusalem that even the sick were brought where but the shadow of Peter might fall upon them.

Apostles in Prison (vv. 17-18).

The marvelous success which accompanied the teaching of the apostles was too much for the Sadducees (v. 17). Their jealous wrath was aroused to such an extent that they resorted to the old time hand of persecution upon the witnesses for Christ. Caln slew his brother of Abel; Joseph's brethren sold him in slavery because he was the favorite of Jacob. Saul was filled with envy when the women ascribed greater glory to him.

An Angel Miraculous Deliverance (vv. 19-21).

The Lord sent an angel to open the prison doors and let the prisoners free (v. 19).

There were no doors, nor bolts capable of shutting out God's angel.

The apostles were commanded to go at once and speak to the people. (v. 20). The things they were to deliver were "all the words of this life." Most wonderful means eternal life through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Their prompt obedience (v. 21). When they were teaching in the temple.

The Apostles Tried (vv. 21-32). The meeting of the council (v.21). Early morning the Jewish council was convened by the high-priest.

Great perplexity (vv. 22-24). When a messenger was sent to bring the apostles but, when they came to the prison it was empty. This news perplexed the council.

The apostles again arrested (vv. 25-26).

The captain came with the news that the men were teaching in the temple. They were dispatched to bring them before the council. They refused the use of violence because they feared the people.

The apostles questioned (vv. 27, 28).

The high council demanded of them the reason for not heeding the charge which they had previously given that they did not teach any more in the name of Jesus. This persistent testimony of the officers interpreted as an effort to bring the guilt of Jesus' blood upon their relatives.

The apostles answer.

Peter boldly replied that they were under obligation to obey God rather than men.

He further told them that they were guilty of the murder of Jesus and that God had raised Him from the dead and exalted Him as a Prince and a Savior to give repentance and remission of sins to Israel. He had made the promise with the Holy Spirit, witnessing these things.

The result (vv. 33-42).

The council determined to kill the apostles.

But the stinging words cut to the heart of their desperate wickedness and filled with murderous hatred instead of moving them to repentance. They did not answer the message, but in any way was to kill their accusers.

Gamaliel's counsel (vv. 34-39). Gamaliel counseled neutrality, assuring them that if it be a work of men it would come to nought, but if it be of God they could not overthrow it because they would be engaged in the awful task of fighting against God.

The apostles beaten (v. 40). Instead of heeding Gamaliel's advice, they vented their rage by beating the apostles and charging them not to speak in Christ's name.

The behavior of the apostles (vv. 41-42). They departed with hearts full of joy that they were counted worthy to suffer for the name of Christ. They continued to preach Jesus Christ in the temple and in private.

An Undivided Heart

An undivided heart which worships God and trusts Him as it should, relieves all anxiety for earthly things.

Salvation

Salvation has cost too much for anyone to give it to a person, when he is sorry for it.—Echoes.
